USA Patriot Act

On October 26, 2001, President Bush signed into law the USA Patriot Act. The purpose of this law is to help protect you, your family and our country from terrorism by preventing terrorist financing. We want you to know that section 326 of the Act requires our credit union to verify the identity of all new members. All financial institutions are required to comply with the final regulations of this Act as of October 1, 2003.

If you are an existing member who joined KH Credit Union before the USA Patriot Act rules became effective, we may need to re-verify your identity when you request a new deposit account, apply for a loan or are added as a signatory to a new or existing deposit or loan account. For transactions performed over the phone, we may ask for additional information in order to identify you. We may also ask for your government issued identification from time-to-time when you perform account transactions.

We ask for your understanding as we work to support these efforts to maintain the security of your funds and our country. Please speak with a credit union staff member if you have any questions or concerns about our identity verification procedures.
